Syllabus

Grading

Grades in this course will be taken as follows:

- Participation (20%)
  - 6 self-evaluations
- Text Activities (20%)
  - 10 “randomly selected” Springboard Activities, 5 grades per unit
- Embedded Assessments (40%)
  - Much of the weight for your grade is placed here because Embedded Assessments are a culmination of your participation and your text activities.
  - 4 total, 2 per unit
- Unit Assessments (15%)
  - 2 total, 1 per unit
- On-Demand Writing (5%)
  - 1 On Demand-Writing Piece
    - Your 2nd On-Demand will count as your final exam grade, which accounts for 10% of your total grade and is compiled with your course grade.

Additional Information

- Turning In Assignments: Everything you give me must be clearly labeled with:
  - First and last name
  - Date
  - Class (ex: 1st Period English IIIA)
- Receiving Returned Assignments: Everything you receive back is important; never toss it.
- In a 2 in. binder, you will store returned work under the following tabs: Bell-work, Participation, Text Activities, Embedded Assessments, On-Demand Writing, Vocabulary.
- Late Work: I will accept late work, excepting the last two weeks of the trimester, as long as it is attached to a completed “Late Work Cover Sheet.”
- Extra Credit: I will accept extra credit, excepting the last two weeks of the trimester, according to the attached guidelines and cover sheets.
- After an Absence: You have exactly the number of days you were absent to catch up.
  - Make-up work to be turned in for credit must be attached to a “Make-up Work Cover Sheet.”

Materials

Every day, you will need:

Syllabus

Extra Credit*

Students in this class may receive up to 30 points extra credit from the following activities. It is possible that this will be the only extra credit offered all trimester.

Option #1: Cultural Event (up to 15 points)

Description: Attend a cultural event, and type a 2-page, double-spaced reaction piece based on your personal experience. This will most likely be a play, concert, or other type of performance. Sports performances can be enriching, and are a great way to participate in your local community, but will not, for the purpose of this class, count as “cultural events.” If you want to go outside the box, think along the following lines: listen to a story-teller at your library, participate in a hands-on demonstration at a craft fair, go to a square-dance at a church, see a new exhibit at a museum, lead or participate in a book club meeting, or go to a poetry-reading at a coffee-shop.

Checklist:

____/1 Name of Event: _____

____/1 Teacher Approval: _____ (This is where your teacher’s signature goes, ensuring that you checked the event with her first.)

____/1 Date: _____

____/1 Time: _____

____/1 Proof: must be attached (Attach a ticket from the event, a program from the event, or a picture of yourself at the event.)

____/10 Paper: 2-page, double-spaced reaction piece, attached, in which you answer the following questions: (Organize your response however you like, but please communicate clearly.)

- Why did you choose to attend this event?
- What were your expectations? What did you think the event would be like? Did you expect to enjoy it and/or learn from it? Why or why not?
- Is this something that you would normally attend, or was it outside of your regular routine?
- Would you attend an event like this again? Why or why not?
- What, if anything, did you learn and/or gain from this experience? How did this experience give you a new perspective?
- What were some positive and negative aspects of your experience? You should be able to name both.

*Please indicate here where you want your extra credit to go here: _____

NOTE: In order to get any credit at all, every component of this extra credit assignment must be turned in together within two weeks of the event itself. This means if one part of the checklist above is missing, do not bother turning in the assignment. You must turn in this cover-sheet, signed in advance, along with a hard-copy of your proof, and your typed 2-page report.

Extra Credit

Option #2: Volunteer Experience (up to 15 points)

Description: Volunteer in some way, and type a 2-page, double-spaced reaction piece based on your personal experience. Many local organizations are in need of your help. Think along the following lines: homeless shelters, soup kitchens, churches, libraries, arts centers, museums, hospitals. If you want to go outside the box, make your own volunteer work. Read to and/or play with a little sibling or a local youngster. You must volunteer for at least 2 hours (not necessarily consecutively).

Checklist:

____/1 Name of Event: _____

____/1 Teacher Approval: _____ (This is where your teacher's signature goes, ensuring that you checked the work with her first.)

____/1 Date(s):

____/1 Time(s):

____/1 Proof: must be attached (Get a signature as well as a phone number for an adult who can verify your work.)

Signature: _____

Phone Number: _____

____/10 Paper: 2-page, double-spaced reaction piece, attached, in which you answer the following questions: (Organize your response however you like, but please communicate clearly.)

- Why did you choose to volunteer in this way?
- What were your expectations? What did you think this work would be like? Did you expect to enjoy it and/or learn from it? Why or why not?
